

Visiting Scholarships (PostDoc)

The European Union Academic Programme Hong Kong (EUAP) is inviting applications for Visiting Scholarships at the postdoc level for research/teaching sojourns of four months duration (one semester) at EUAP institutions in Hong Kong (fall/winter term 2013, 2014, 2015).

The EUAP is a new consortium of four universities in Hong Kong (Hong Kong Baptist University, The University of Hong Kong, The Chinese University of Hong Kong and Lingnan University), co-financed by the European Commission. It is designed to strengthen EU-Hong Kong relations through academic work and enhance the understanding of the EU in Asia. It cooperates closely with the diplomatic representatives of the EU and EU member states as well as European chambers of commerce and a large number of institutions in Europe.

Applications are now invited in the following areas:

- European economic integration, business and law
- EU external policies / EU-China relations
- Political Economy of the European Union (EU internal policies and governance)

Successful applicants are expected to contribute to academic research and teaching in participating institutions, development of new courses and outreach activities, in particular briefing sessions for selected target audiences in Hong Kong political circles, civil society, business and the mass media, as well as conferences. The emphasis will be on communicating and interpreting current EU developments to selected target audiences.

The position is suitable in particular for younger researchers who would like to gain more experience in the public and academic discourse between the EU and the greater China region. Applicants should have completed their PhD in one of the above (or related) fields and should have a documented research brief and academic (teaching) experience. Extremely good communication skills in English and willingness to cooperate flexibly with university and non-academic partners are a must.

Review of applications will begin by late March 2013 and will continue until the positions are filled. The envisaged starting date for the first Visiting Scholar is 1 September 2013.

Successful applicants will receive a monthly stipend plus accommodation allowance of max. 53,000 HK$ to cover living expenses and an additional travel allowance to/from Hong Kong up to 12,000 HK$.

Interested candidates may make informal confidential enquiries via the EUAP office (euaphk@hkbu.edu.hk), Mr. Martin Ho.

Application Procedure:

Applicants are invited to write a detailed letter of motivation in response to the requirements and provide a portfolio documenting previous relevant experience. They should also fill in an application form, which is obtainable by downloading from <http://pers.hkbu.edu.hk/applicationforms> (academic/teaching staff). The completed application form and a portfolio of previous written work or other documented achievements should be sent to Hong Kong Baptist University / European Union Academic Programme; Attn: Prof. Jean-Pierre Cabestan, Director General; Rm 515 David C. Lam Building, Kowloon Tong, Kowloon; Hong Kong.

Applicants not contacted within eight weeks from having sent their portfolio may consider their applications unsuccessful for the time being. Application forms and documents will not be returned but kept on file for future reference.

The EUAP reserves the right not to make an appointment for the scholarship advertised, and the appointment will be made according to the terms & conditions then applicable at the time of offer.

